Today Tomorrow Weekly Monthly Jul 26, 2022 Try to adopt a positive outlook at all times today. Luck is set to echo any single thought that crosses your mind, so if you think negative thoughts it might be a hard day for you indeed. You will probably feel the urge to work on your own today, but you probably need the support and manpower of a team if you are honest with yourself. Try not to say anything that might damage an important relationship today. Even if you feel grumpy, try to walk in other people's shoes and you will see that it can be hard for them too. The stock market has some nice surprises in store for the next few days. If you want to invest, just ask for some advice from a specialist working at your bank. A difference of opinion can bother you more than it typically would, perhaps because you feel rushed in other areas of life. Try to pull back on the pressure and avoid overloading yourself with things to do. This transit can stimulate tendencies to push, nitpick, and argue. However, jumping into action before getting all the facts is not advised. Later today, you have a little more courage than usual to seek out and face the truth. You may be coming to a new or different perspective. Today's Mercury-Mars square can agitate, however. We should watch for hasty communications and skipping steps. We can find ourselves too quickly in disagreement, likely because we're communicating ineffectively or impatiently. We may be competing for the floor when expressing our ideas, thoughts, and opinions, making it difficult to engage in healthy dialogue. Creativity: Fair ~ Love: Fair ~ Business: Fair This Week in Astrology Featured at Cafe Astrology: Click for Yearly Forecast Specials This Month: Sagittarius July 2022 Monthly Horoscope Overview for Sagittarius: July shines the spotlight on your inner world, dear Sagittarius. It's a solid time for improving daily routines, building health, and taking care of business. From the 5th forward, there can be more demands from your daily life and work, but also more confidence to take action in these areas. You're supporting others through practical help or receiving this kind of assistance. Seeing a new layer of a situation can put you in a better frame of mind for decision-making. You're feeling pleasantly motivated and more aware of the need to take charge of health, money, or fitness matters. You seem to have the energy, enthusiasm, and smarts to improve and advance. You're in a good position to plan, organize, and structure your life in crucial ways. You can be challenging yourself to improve your habits this month, or you can be pumped about getting organized. Problems with co-workers can be aired and tackled this month and next. It's a time to acknowledge if there are difficulties with work load or excessive demands on you, but it's best to avoid being too impulsive. Aim to eliminate clutter or waste that interferes with health and fitness pursuits. At the same time, avoid overstraining so that you can enjoy yourself as you get your life into shape. Love relationships, intimacy, and money matters can be strong areas of focus in July. Later in the month, learning, sharing, publishing, and possibly some adventure can be part of the picture. July brings a large focus on your solar eighth house and its themes: debts owed or due, emotional and material support, intimate relationships, and power dynamics. At least one inner planet is in this house at any given time this month, sometimes overlapping. You begin the month wanting to take charge of your financial or intimate affairs. A new beginning on the level of financial or emotional support is possible. It's a good time to get a handle on shared resources, manage problematic dependencies, explore a subject more deeply, or grow an intimate relationship. Around the Full Moon on the 13th, money matters, talents, and values come into sharper focus. Feelings, realizations, or revelations stir you to get on top of your finances or show your abilities in the best possible way. If you've been holding emotions back, they can erupt now. You can have an epiphany regarding your needs and wants, and this helps clarify certain decisions or a path to take. Whether you've been ignoring your need to pamper yourself or you've been overdoing it recently, it's time to balance the scales. Communications, studies, publishing, and connecting are in stronger focus with Mercury and the Sun moving into your solar ninth house on the 19th and 22nd. These transits awaken a desire for adventure or excitement. After the New Moon on the 28th, new beginnings and a fresh start are possible related to education, publishing, promotion, travel, adventure, or sharing ideas. At the same time, Jupiter's retrograde turn signals the need to avoid taking on too much. Jupiter will be retrograde for about four months, and at this time of the year, it's best to work on what you already have going instead of adding more projects or plans to your life. You could be realigning your thinking towards a creative project, pleasure, or romance. You don't need to put things on hold, but you can benefit from slowing things down a little so that you can catch your breath. It can be a good time to find something lost or revive old projects or hobbies. There are times to expand and times to pace yourself, and the latter is likely to apply during this cycle that lasts until November 23rd. It's an excellent time to refresh yourself, particularly through fun and engaging activities. Warm and positive energy is with you for sharing viewpoints. Non-romantic or activities tend to favor you most. More: Monthly Horoscopes - Details This Year: Sagittarius In 2022, you are more confident about your family, living arrangements, and living conditions, dear Sagittarius. These areas of life blossom, expand, or improve. As well, your creative, playful, and romantic side develop. It's a powerful time for self-expression, new forms of entertainment, and romantic explorations. As adventurous as you are by nature, 2022 often pulls you closer to home and family. Family matters are a source of great pleasure, joy, and increase. In some cases, too, the increased focus on family and home can feel a little too excessive! With your ruler, Jupiter, in Pisces and your solar fourth house half of the year, you are more inclined towards introspection than you were while Jupiter was in Aquarius and your communicative third house. A more spiritual or meditative approach to your life may figure strongly now. It's a year when you rediscover your roots and work on loving yourself from the bottom up. Jupiter's brief visit to the sign of assertive Aries from May to July, however, is the exception. A more spontaneous and enterprising spirit is with you during this period, and it returns on December 20th, continuing into 2023. While Jupiter is in Aries and your creative sector, your natural enthusiasm and sense of humor return with gusto. Optimism, however, can take a few shots as you face some botched plans and practical concerns later this year, but you have a sense of making progress and of looking forward with freshness. The major axes of change this year involve the following areas: finances, work, habits, romance, children, recreation, and communications. You have more prompts to improve and update your routines, health, chores, work, and daily tasks, and it's rewarding. More: 2022 Horoscope See the 2022 Sagittarius Preview Horoscope This Year in Love: Sagittarius 2022 Love Horoscope for Sagittarius Saturn spends another year in your communications sector, dear Sagittarius, and it wants you to get serious about what you're communicating or how you're expressing yourself. It asks you to take up some serious studies or brush up your skills. This can be a busy time, but also a productive period. You're specializing. Chiron, the healer, continues its transit of your romance sector, pointing to lessons and discoveries about your romantic needs and dating life. It's about learning to share your light, talents, uniqueness, and love more fearlessly. Others look upon you with more respect, tolerance, and acceptance this year. You are especially appealing and charming just by being yourself. You gravitate toward people in your dating life who help you grow, learn, improve, or heal... cont'd More: 2022 Sagittarius Love Horoscope Special note concerning Covid-19 Special note: Astrological transits continue in their cyclical ways no matter the current situation. They should always be adapted to what's going on in your life in sensible ways. This applies at all times, but is particularly relevant now during this health crisis. During the very vital quarantines, if the planetary transits are suggesting it's a great time to socialize, for example, it makes sense to adapt this to online socializing. Let's be safe and protect one another through social distancing, if possible. Much love, Annie (March 18, 2020) My heart goes out to all those experiencing difficulty. Love, Annie (April 1, 2020)
